CRUISING DAY Vienna, Austria

Saturday, October 27th, 2012

“Wien”, as it is known in German, is a truly elegant and grand city. Take the time to fully appreciate the grandeur of the monumental buildings, many of them located along the famous Ringstrasse. Admire the architecture along the Graben and Kohlmarkt as well as the hidden corners of Vienna. Visit the imperial palace of Schönbrunn or marvel at world famous paintings. Enjoy a horse drawn carriage ride through the quaint streets of Vienna’s centre, ride the famous Ferris wheel, sit and relax in a café and have a Sacher Torte! There is no end to the delights of this imperial city. We hope you enjoy it!

CRUISING DAY Dürnstein / Wachau / Melk

Sunday, 28th of October 2012

Leave the big cities behind today as you enter the picturesque countryside of Austria. Visit Dürnstein this morning, dominated by the ruins of the castle where Richard the Lionheart was imprisoned, and stroll the quiet and charming streets of this fairy tale village. Be sure to be up on the sundeck for the scenic cruise through the Wachau Valley before arriving in Melk for your afternoon tour. The abbey in Melk is one of the most famous and visited cultural sights in Austria, so remember to take your cameras!

CRUISING DAY

Linz / Salzburg - Cesky Krumlov / Passau

Monday, October 29th, 2012

This morning, some of you will disembark in Linz, capital of Upper Austria, for the optional tour to Salzburg. En route, you'll drive through the beautiful Austrian Lake District and the Salzkammergut. Afterwards, you'll be awe-inspired by the breathtaking beauty of the city of Mozart, dominated by the Hohensalzburg Fortress. Others are bound to enjoy the scenic drive to the UNESCO Heritage site of Cesky Krumlov, where a well-preserved medieval town awaits them. Or you chose to enjoy a relaxed cruising day past beautiful, tranquil scenery to eventually enjoy the charm of romantic Passau, already in Germany. Today is a day that never ceases to amaze!

CRUISING DAY Regensburg

Tuesday, October 30th, 2012

Regensburg is a perfectly preserved medieval city right on the banks of the Danube and dominated by the spires of its impressive cathedral. The charm of Regensburg lies in its narrow alleys and quaint shops, so you'll want to be sure to explore the area just between the cathedral and the tourist office. Not to be missed is the opportunity to take a look at Germany's oldest sausage kitchen, located just next to the river a short walk away from the ship! Those who signed up will enjoy a visit to the Audi Museum in Ingolstadt.

DOCKING LOCATION:
In Regensburg: Donaulände
